The exercises of the Mt. Carmel High School will begin the first Monday in September under the management of Miss Drake, of Anderson. We congratulate the patrons in securing the services of one so capable and faithful, and we have no hesitancy in saying that this institution of learning will be one of which the Valley town will be proud of and will prove a grand success.

ABBEVILLE'S DOTS HERE AND THERE.

The race is over and some good men are left, but it is worth entering upon such a campaign if for no other purpose than to find out how many friends you have. Don't be discouraged; we were left once ourself and know how it feels. We will run differently next time, so as to "get there."

The bridges over the public road and side walks on Mugazine street are in a dangerous condition—in splendid fix to break the leg of a mule or night pedestrain. A little attention at once might save damages to the council.

The sidewalk that leads to the depot is also in a bad condition, washed out in great holes, which makes walking to a bilm d man or a dark night not only difficult, but dangerous. Rev. P. B. Jackson preached two excellent sermons in the M. E. Church last Sabbath morning and night to a large and attentive congregation.

Question—is it right in the sight of the Lord of the Sabbuth to transact secular and financial business of the church on the Sabbuth day? We think not and will hold to our opinion as long as the command, "Remember the Sabbuth day to keep it holy" is in force. What says the ministers and church officials on the subject?

There will be divine services in the Baptist church at this place at 11 o'clock next Sabbuth by the pastor Rev. J. A. Brown.

Last Wednesday evening Messrs. Brown and Arthur Syfan gave a pieasant surprise to quite a number of young ladies and gentlemen in the way of an evening party. Ice cream and cake were served in abundance, and the hours passed swiftly, yet pieasantly by in lively and animated conversations, while instrumental and vocal music served as a charming accompaniment to the happy occasion so much enjoyed by all.

The schedule on the Abbeville branch will change after the 1st instant, making five daily trips instead of four as heretofore. This is more time than was ever made on this road and will give the train hands every night and Sunday in the City of Hodges. This looks like the railroad authorities are waking up to the interests of old Abbeville.

From the first of September next W. T. McDonald will be found in the store of Messrs. A. M. Hill & Sons, where he will at all times extend a hearty welcome to his many friends, and especially his old customers whom he will be prepared to serve with the best goods, and at the lowest prices. When you come to the city be sure to give him a call.

To the Editor of the News and Courier: In your issue of August 15 appeared a special from Greenville, in which your correspondent repeats a story to the effect that "Capt. D. K. Norris was forced to leave Orangeburg county In consequence of immoral conduct." Now we, the undersigned, old neighbors and acquaintances of Capt. D. K. getting the result of the election before the people last saturday was the wonder of the crowd.

The voters of this County have a nut to crack. D. K. Norris must get Democratic voters to be elected, yet he says upon the question of the sub treasary plan, he will support it caucus or no caucus. Can he do this and remain a Democrat.

Rev. P. B. Jackson was in the city last sabbath and preached morning and evening in the Methodist Church. As usual his sermons were powerful and soul stirring.

Robt. Emmet Cox will move in Fort Pickens and occupy the House of Mr. P. D. Klugh.

Houses are in demand and rents are rising. Now is the time for the owners of town lots to build upon them. The want of houses will keep away many who are looking towards Abbeville. We know of five or six men now hunting reshiences? they are not here and we are waiting to see who will start the ball towards providing for them.

The suggestion of the editor of the Press and Banner is a good one. When the G. L. and S. arrived at Laurens, a Banquet was given to Superintendent Wadley and his forces consisting of three hundred men. The same was done at Woodruff, Spartanburg and Anderson and these are the only towns on those lines of road that have made progress. The Banquet Anderson cost some fifteen hundred dollars. It showed the progressive spirit autimating her people four years ago, and that spirit is still alive and Anderson's growth is phenominal. Let Abbeville move.

Last Saturday the candidates left out took they lift the veil of the the tuture, I have no doubt some of them would have rejoiced in not being allowed to enter that circle which might be justly inscribed above it "all who enter here must leave peace of mind and the hope of a tranquil life behind."

GRENWOOD, S. C., August 25, 1890.

Editor Press and Banner:

Do our farmers all over the county know if the Sub-Treasury bill passes that there will be but one warehouse to each county, and that will be at the Court Houses? And if the farmers of Lowndesville, Mount Carmel, McCormick, Troy, Bradley, Greenwood, Ninety-Six, Hodges, Donalds, and other points on the railroad get any advantage of the warehouse they will have to hauf their cotton to the Court House to store it.

they will have to haul their cotton to the court House to store it.

Now, Mr. Editor, I am well aware that this is the least of all the many objections to the bill, but I think every objection to it should be well known before next Friday. Let the farmers all over the county build warehouses of their own, where they will accommodate the largest number. The farmers of Ninety-Six and Greenwood are now building theirs.

I hope no one will think this is written with any feeling against the Court House, for I know the merchants at Abbeville would not vote for the bill for the trade that would be in it for them. They are too clear headed for that. I did all I could for Benet as long as he was in the field.

Now let us all see what majority we can give Johnstone. It is not the man in the fight now—it is the measure. Yours truly,

We have known Capt. D. K. DEAR SIR—I have seen in the newspapers that the State Democratic Executive Committee of which you were chairman, has refused to vacate in favor of the State Democratic Executive Committee elected by the State Convention which met in Columbia on the 18th instant. I feel that the old committee is functus officio, and that the newly elected committee of which Col. J. L. M. Only a short time ago, some of our correspondents made note that lands had been brought by a syndicate at the crossing of the G. C. & N. road and the Savannah Valley Railroad, where it was proposed to build a new town which should draw trade for miles around, and whose advantages would be instrumental in bringing new citizens to the inviting fields which lay in close proximity. The lam's were to be divided and sold in lots, and all sorts of enterprises were expected to be born and reared in that section which has been so long lacking in those pursuits which bring prosperity.

And now it will afford our readers pleasure to know that Mr. Pat Calboun, of New York, has at this time, at Millwood, two civil enterprises were completed to come into Ciluton. into Clinton.

NEW COTTON.

The Crop is Much Earlier Than

Usual. The first bale of new cotton was sold in this market August 20th, by Mr. Jacob Goode, a tenant on the lands of Mr. P. A. McCaslan. It weighed 483 pounds, middling, and was bought by Messrs. White Brothers at 11 cents. On the 21st, Messrs, Hunter Brothers sold the second bale, Messrs. White Brothers being the buyers at 10% cents. Weight, 435 pounds. On the 25th instant, Mr. Bolin B. Allen sold a bale to Messrs. Baker, Matthews & Co. at 11 cents.

Dr. Chiles sold the first bale at Ninety-Six.

Mr. E. M. Lipscomb, the buyer, at 11 cents.

Many planters are now picking cotton from the fields which are daily growing whiter with the fleecy staple, and among other planters who were contending for the honor of the first new bale, is Mr. John H. Thomas who brought in a bale in the seed to the McMillan gin, but it was not ginned until yesterday.

The gins at Abbeville are ready for business.
